

The Ogden Museum of Southern Art presents

Southern Art Southern Stories

Enhancing Early Literacy Through Art

Early childhood art experiences can help develop hand-eye coordination, fine motor skills, visual perception and discrimination, and critical thinking – all skills necessary for literacy.

Register now for a fun and interactive introduction to art in a museum setting. Once a month, children will hear stories, explore the collection, and create art inspired by themes found throughout the museum such as family, nature, and self.

- Saturdays, January 14, February 4, March 10, April 21, May 12
- Classes take place from 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.
- For children ages 4 to 7 with a parent or caregiver
- Museum members: $15 per class
Non-members: $18 per class
Register for entire series and receive a $10 discount

Ogden Museum refund policy: A full refund is given if the Ogden cancels a course or if the student cancels at least 2 weeks before classes begin. It is the policy of the Ogden that once classes begin students who have registered are responsible for full tuition payment regardless of the number of classes attended. Classes are subject to cancellation due to insufficient enrollment.

I have read, understand and will comply with the above policy.

Registration is not complete without your signature.
